

Paul Dippold

Phone: (804)740-3323 • Email: pauldippold@me.com • Website: paool.com

iOS Developer

Over 7 years of development experience with iOS. Experience with all aspects of development process including analyzing needs, designing, programming, testing, releasing, marketing, supporting, and updating applications. Proficient in the end to end development of applications in Objective C or Swift.

- Recipient of Style Weekly's 16 under 16 award for achievements in technology, April 2011
 - Received Scholarships from Apple to attend their World Wide Developer Conference in San Francisco, California in June 2013, June 2014, and June 2015
 - Recognized by Henrico County School Board for outstanding achievements in technology, February 2014
 - Recipient of Second Century Scholarship from James Madison University's Computer Science Department, April 2015
 - Recipient of CarMax-Rich Sharp Entrepreneur Scholarship, 2015
-

EXPERIENCE SUMMARY

Programming:	Objective C, Swift, HTML, PHP, SQL, Java, and C
Software:	Xcode, Eclipse, Oracle Application Express, and Photoshop
Hardware:	Paid and volunteer repair of laptops, TV, iPods, iPhones, and cell phones

EMPLOYMENT

Socialite LLC. - Social media startup

Cofounder and Lead iOS Developer, October 2015 - Present

- Responsible for the design and development of the front end iOS app
- Worked with a small team to build social media applications
- Pitched and accepted into a startup accelerator

Henrico County Public Schools- School system consisting of 72 schools and 40,000 students

Mobile Application Developer, October 2013 - June 2015

Negotiated sale of a mobile application and an employment contract to work up to 15 hours/week to support the purchased application as well as develop new applications.

- As the sole iOS developer I developed and published multiple iOS and universal applications as a member of the school system technology staff
- Set up servers and RESTful services to be used by current and future applications throughout the county

Self Employed

iOS Application Developer/Web Developer, 2009 - Present

- Developed 30+ game and utility applications with over 12,000 total downloads on the iOS App Store
- Negotiated relationships with remote partners to establish websites and applications
- Attended 3 WWDCs as a scholarship winner